GOODWILL CLOTHING DONATION BIN

Childhood Disease Research Foundation and Community of Change is a non-profit charity organization that provides treatment, information, counseling, educational materials, and research for all types of childhood diseases. They have recently launched a new clothing drive program for the Riverside, Orange County and San Diego area that goes to children in need.

There will be a blue bin located near the dumpster in the front of the school, where you have the opportunity to donate any unwanted clothes and shoes. Besides donating used clothes for a good cause we will also be helping the environment which is one of their program's goals.
